

Please do not expand Lpfm stations. This radio means so much to me and to hundreds of thousands of people across the world. You doing this will mean many not having access to this life changing radio station. I know too many stories to tell of how this station has changed my life and countless others. If you care for the best interest in the people, you will not give LPFM a priority over FM translator services.